

Salamanca, January 23-26

MEETING OF THE SPANISH SOCIETY OF MEDICINAL CHEMISTRY

The SEQT, the Spanish member of the European Federation for Medicinal Chemistry (EFMC), is organizing the 18th National Meeting “New perspectives in drug discovery”, to be held in the Faculty of Pharmacy of the University of Salamanca, Spain, on January 23-26, 2018.

The scientific program will include plenary and invited lectures, short oral communications and flash poster presentations, covering the main stages of modern drug discovery. It will be complemented by a commercial exhibition and an enjoyable social program.

CONFIRMED SPEAKERS TO DATE

Fernanda Borges (Department of Chemistry, University of Porto)

Gabriele Constantino (Pharmacy Department, MedChemGroup, Università di Parma)

Ignacio García Ribas (Oncology Drug Development, Takeda Pharmaceutical International Co.)

M^a Ángeles Martínez-Grau (Medicinal Chemistry, DCRT Spain, Lilly, S.A.)

Juan Carlos Morales (Institute of Parasitology and Biomedicine “López Neira”, CSIC, Granada)

Sergio Moreno (Institute of Functional Biology and Genomics, CSIC-University of Salamanca)

Christa Müller (PharmaCenter, Bonn Pharmaceutical Institute)

Salamanca and its University

Salamanca is a lively and vibrant university town. Its Old City was declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site in 1988. The University of Salamanca is the oldest university in Spain. In 2018, the eighth centenary of its foundation will be commemorated (centenario.usal.es), with a great variety of scientific and other cultural events being scheduled. Among them, the 18th SEQT National Meeting will give attendees the opportunity of participating in such a remarkable celebration.

For further information and regular updates, please visit our website <https://congresoseqt2018.usal.es>

SEQT 2018 Meeting Secretariat
e-mail: congresoseqt2018@usal.es

